Start time Saturday and Sunday 8:30 a.m.

AMHA Approved: This is an AMHA Show and will be conducted under the rules and regulations of AMHA.

KMHBC: KMHB nominated horses will receive Triple KMHB Points at the Mini Breeders Cup. If a KMHB Horse gets 1 AMHA point, then they will receive KMHB payouts for 3 points. AMHA points will follow AMHA'S standard point system. Please see 2022 AMHA rule book. You DO NOT need to be a member of KMHB nor does the horse need to be KMHB nominated to show.

The Facility & Directions: Check out the Facility at www.shelbycofair.com. The '90 X 250' Livestock Facility offers an indoor arena which has a sand/soil base for footing. Stalls will be located in the Palmer/Bradshaw barn and the Bradley Barn. Both barns offer great stalls. The Bradley Barn also has a large indoor warm up arena that everyone is welcome to use. The Bradley Barn and The Palmer Bradshaw barn have a total of 127 stalls. The barns are assigned based on postmark dates. We do not foresee having to use the Weller barn this year. In the event both other barns are full, the Weller barn may need to be utilized. In the event your stall assignment is in the Weller barn, I will notify you before the show. You do not have to reserve a stall; you can show from your trailer.

The Shelby County Fairgrounds is located a few miles off I-64 on US-60 (Midland Trail). Shelbyville Exit 32 or 35. Please use Google Maps or Map Quest for turn by turn directions from your location to 1513 Midland Trail, Shelbyville, KY 40065.

Ed Birchler Memorial Award: In remembrance of Ed Birchler, director of KMHB. Ed's passion for the miniature horse has carried over to his children and grandchildren. DSB Farm would like to honor his memory and present a special Ed Birchler Memorial award to the winners in the Liberty Class.

Jim Payne Memorial Award: In remembrance of Jim Payne's life and his dedication to the world of miniature horses, the KMHBC would like to honor his memory and present a special Jim Payne Memorial award.
